ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The author offers praise and thanks to Allah SWT for all His mercy, blessings, and guidance, which have enabled the author to successfully complete this Apprenticeship Report. This report was prepared as one of the requirements for completing the apprenticeship program in the D4 International Business Administration Study Program at the Bengkalis State Polytechnic.

The apprenticeship was conducted at the Bengkalis Type Madya Pabean C Customs and Excise Supervision and Service Office (KPPBC) for four months. Throughout the apprenticeship and the preparation of this report, the author gained a wealth of experience, knowledge, guidance, and support from various parties. Therefore, the author would like to take this opportunity to express gratitude to:

1. Mr. Johny Custer, S.T., M.T., Director of the Bengkalis State Polytechnic.
2. Mr. Romadhoni, S.T., M.T., First Deputy Director of the Bengkalis State Polytechnic.
3. Ms. Nurhazana, S.E., M.Sc., as Head of the Department of Business Administration at Bengkalis State Polytechnic.
4. Ms. Wan Junita Raflah, B.Sc., M.Ec.Dev., as Chair of the D4 International Business Administration Program at Bengkalis State Polytechnic.
5. Mr. M. Alkadri Perdana, B.IT., M.Sc., as the apprenticeship Coordinator.
6. Ms. Yanisha Dwi Astari, M.Hum., as the apprenticeship advisor who provided guidance, direction, advice, and motivation throughout the apprenticeship period and the preparation of this report.
7. All faculty members of the D4 International Business Administration Program at Bengkalis State Polytechnic, who shared their knowledge and experience throughout the author's education.
8. All support staff at Bengkalis State Polytechnic, who facilitated the administrative processes during the apprenticeship.

9. Mr. Novryansyah, S.S.T., Ak., Head of the Bengkalis Type Madya Customs and Excise Supervision and Service Office (KPPBC), who provided the author with the opportunity to complete the apprenticeship at that agency.
10. Mr. Imam Aflah Rafif, S.E., as the field supervisor who provided guidance, direction, patience, and highly valuable knowledge throughout the author's Apprenticeship.
11. All employees of the Bengkalis Type Madya Customs and Excise Office (KPPBC), particularly those in the General Subsection, the Enforcement and Investigation Section (P2), and the Bandar Sri Setia Raja (BSSR) Selat Baru International Port, who provided Assistedance, experience, knowledge, and support throughout the apprenticeship.
12. Beloved family, especially my father Rajudin, my late mother Zaharah, my siblings M. Aidil Akmal and Nur Azira, as well as Muhammad As'ad Hayyan Zahuri, who always provide prayers, love, encouragement, motivation, and endless support to me while I pursued my studies and carried out my Apprenticeship. Their sacrifices and sincerity have been the greatest source of strength for me in completing this Apprenticeship.
13. All my Apprenticeship peers and friends who provided companionship, support, encouragement, and excellent cooperation throughout the apprenticeship.

In closing, the author acknowledges that this report still has shortcomings. Therefore, the author welcomes constructive criticism and suggestions to improve this report. May this Apprenticeship report be of benefit to readers and serve as a reference for students who will undertake Apprenticeships in the future.
